Dear Shareholders:

I know everybody has been speculating, why things have been so quiet. I can tell you things are moving forward. The issue with the moving to the OTCBB and DTC freeze is taking time, but I will update everybody at the end of next week. Nothing negative, just trying to get everything done and done right.

We have launched a new campaign, via the internet at the beginning of this week for our Re Juv by Caci line, and by far it is the most successful launch we have had. Also next week I will give a more through update.

I wish everybody a Great Memorial Day, and I personally thank everybody for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Jorge Bravo

President/CEO
